

Conditions

The « Cyclo tour du Léman » is a popular cycling excursion open to all, men and women with a minimum age of 18 years.

The tour will be timed, but will not be the subject of a classification. The results will be communicated alphabetically and available on cyclotour.ch. The tour is held on a road, open to circulation. The carry of a helmet is obligatory.

The participants must respect the highway code and instructions of the official police chiefs. The riders must be in possession of an identity card, in order to facilitate the crossing of customs. The bicycles of the Swiss participants must be provided with a valid label-number. Any accompanying vehicles are prohibited.

Insurance and Accident exclusion

Insurance

Each participant must ensure himself and be covered by a valid accident insurance, which would cover the consequences of an accident, occurred during the tour.

Responsibility insurance

Each participant must be ensured and covered with a valid responsibility insurance, which would cover the damage caused to a third person, occurred during the tour.

Exclusion of responsibility for the organizers of « Cyclo tour du Léman ». Subject to the restrictions on exclusions of responsibility rising from the law and in particular from article 100 al.2 CO, the organizers, its employed and other auxiliaries, do not take any responsibility for direct or indirect damage undergone by a participant, occurred during the tour. Foreign participants must provide a document proving the medical aptitude, at the beginning of the tour.

Right to the image

Each participant gives his agreement to the organizer for the use of his image, taken during the tour, for a promotion proposal. If this clause would not be accepted by the participant, he will have to specify it, written to the organizer.

Adhesion with the present conditions

The participation on the « Cyclo tour du Léman » implies the general acceptance of this conditions. In the event of desistance the inscriptions will not be refunded, regardless of the cause.